

2010 OCALA EVENTING CLINICS!

Mark your calendars now for the 2010 USEA Ocala Eventing Clinics which will run February 1-3, 2010. The USEA has an exciting schedule planned for all eventing, hunter/jumper, and dressage enthusiasts.

The clinics will once again be held at Betsy Watkins' beautiful Longwood Farm South located in Ocala, Florida.

On Monday, Lauren Hough will be covering Show Jumping and Tuesday will feature Linda Zang's Dressage presentation. The Young Event Horse Judging Seminar and Competition will be conducted on Wednesday.

In addition, Linda Zang will be available for private lessons on Monday (all day) and Wednesday (afternoon) and Mark Phillips will conduct a cross-country clinic on February 3, 2010 (morning).

Tentative schedule:

Monday, February 1, 2010 – Lauren Hough Show Jumping Clinic

8:30 AM – Introduction
9:00-10:30 AM – Training Level and Young Event Horses
11:00AM-12:30 PM – Preliminary Level
1:00-2:00 PM – Lunch Break
2:00-3:30 PM – Intermediate/Advanced Level

Tuesday, February 2, 2010 – Dressage for Eventing Clinic* with Linda Zang and Marilyn Payne

8:30 AM – Introduction
9:00 AM-12:30 PM – Dressage (levels: TBD)
1:00-2:00 PM – Lunch Break
2:00-5:00 PM – Dressage (levels: TBD)

Wednesday, February 3, 2010 – Young Event Horse Judging Seminar and Competition

Start time: TBD

Wednesday, February 3, 2010 – Cross-Country Clinic with Mark Phillips (limited space available for riders)

8:30-10:00 AM – Training/Preliminary Levels
10:00-11:30 AM – Intermediate/Advanced Levels

All days are open to the public. You do not need to be a USEF Licensed Official or ICP Certified Instructor to attend any of the days as a spectator.

For more information please contact Nancy Knight, Director of Education at 703-669-9997 or nancy@useventing.com.

*If you are a "r" Eventing Judge and do not hold a Dressage card, attendance at the February 2, 2010 Dressage Clinic will fulfill your continuing education credit requirement.